Joel Pollak invites you to Health Care Forum:
“What Should Replace ObamaCare?”

with The Honorable Tevi Troy, Ph.D.

Former Deputy Secretary of Health and Human Services Hudson Institute Senior Fellow

Tevi Troy is a Visiting Senior Fellow at the Hudson Institute. From 2007 to 2009, Dr. Troy was the Deputy Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services – the second in command and chief operating officer of the largest civilian department in the federal government, with a $716 billion annual budget and 67,000 employees. After receiving his Ph.D. in American Civilization from the University of Texas, Dr. Troy dedicated a dozen years to public service, working at senior levels in the U.S. House of Representatives, the U.S. Senate, executive agencies, and the White House. Before coming to HHS, Dr. Troy served as Deputy Assistant to the President for domestic policy. Dr. Troy is also the author of Intellectuals and the American Presidency: Philosophers, Jesters, or Technicians.

and Master of Ceremonies, Arie Friedman, M.D.

Dr. Arie Friedman practices general pediatrics and co-owns a private medical practice in Northern Illinois. Dr. Friedman is a nationally recognized expert on the impact of health care reform on patients and physicians.
